SUMMARY

After working closely with technology for the last ten years, I decided to go further into the digital world by actually creating apps and web pages for other people to use. I started by teaching myself HTML and CSS, and really enjoyed the combination of using a concrete computer language to accomplish a creative goal in the form of live, interactive content. I decided to make this a career change and joined Deep Dive Coding, a 10 week long intensive coding bootcamp. I look forward to developing for a local Albuquerque tech company, where I can bring my positive attitude and client first mindset.

RECENT EXPERIENCE

Verizon	2008-2018
----------------	------------------

Customer Service

Handled customer concerns while balancing the needs of the business such as average handle time, financial credits, and sales goals.

Tech Support

Supported customer base in all mobile operating systems, computers using the cellular network, and voice services for all phones. I continued to sharpen my support and customer interaction skills.

Coach

Provided on the job training and support for agents new to the Tech Support role. I updated and later re-created new materials for daily and weekly focus for the 6 week program.

Leadership

Participated in a year long leadership development program, honing my leadership skills and practicing them as center and team support. One side project was collaboratively identifying needs for additional supplemental training and employee engagement programs, then developing and delivering them to large groups.

I then spent six months in an active leadership role as a Supervisor, managing two teams total, of 10 people and 15 people respectively.

Bode Aviation
